Plot

Friends Forever: Double Trouble begins with Samantha James (Judi Curtin) and Kate Harper (Elizabeth Berkley) struggling to make ends meet. Samantha is a divorced mother of two who works as a waitress. Kate is also a single mother who works as a teacher.

One day, Samantha meets Justin Sands (David Schwimmer), a wealthy businessman. Justin is immediately attracted to Samantha, and he begins to pursue her. Samantha is initially hesitant to date Justin because she is afraid of getting hurt. However, she eventually agrees to go out with him.

As Samantha and Justin's relationship begins to heat up, Kate becomes jealous. Kate has always been in love with Justin, but she has never told him how she feels. Kate is afraid that if Samantha and Justin get together, she will lose her best friend.

Kate's jealousy eventually gets the better of her, and she begins to sabotage Samantha's relationship with Justin. Kate tells Justin that Samantha is only after his money. She also tells Samantha that Justin is a player.

Samantha and Justin's relationship is put to the test by Kate's sabotage. However, they eventually overcome the challenges and end up together. Kate learns to accept that Justin is in love with Samantha, and she moves on.
