Accommodations

Milan has a wide range of accommodations to choose from, from budget-friendly hostels to luxury hotels. If you're looking to save money, consider staying in a hostel or guesthouse. There are several options located within walking distance of the city center. If you're willing to spend a bit more, you can find a comfortable hotel for around €100 per night.

Transportation

Milan has a well-developed public transportation system that makes it easy to get around the city. The metro is the fastest and most efficient way to travel, but it can be crowded during peak hours. You can also take the bus or tram, which are slower but less crowded. If you're planning on ng a lot of sightseeing, consider purchasing a Milan City Pass, which gives you unlimited access to public transportation for 24, 48, or 72 hours.

Activities

There are countless things to see and do in Milan. Here are some of the top attractions:

- Duomo di Milano: The Duomo is Milan's most famous landmark. It is one of the largest cathedrals in the world, and its intricate Gothic architecture is breathtaking.
- Teatro alla Scala: The Teatro alla Scala is one of the world's most famous opera houses. It has hosted some of the greatest singers and conductors of all time.
- Sforza Castle: The Sforza Castle is a large castle that was built in the 15th century. It is now home to several museums, including the Pinacoteca di Brera and the Museo del Novecento.
- Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II: The Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II is a beautiful shopping mall that is located in the heart of Milan. It is home to some of the world's most famous luxury brands.

- Brera District: The Brera District is a charming neighborhood that is known for its art galleries, boutiques, and restaurants.
- Navigli District: The Navigli District is a trendy neighborhood that is home to several canals and bridges. It is a popular spot for nightlife and dining.

Budget

Milan can be an expensive city to visit, but there are ways to save money. Here are some tips:

- Travel during the off-season: Milan is less crowded and more affordable during the off-season, which runs from October to April.
- Book your accommodations in advance: The earlier you book your accommodations, the more likely you are to find a good deal.
- Take advantage of free activities: There are many free activities available in Milan, such as visiting the Duomo, walking through the Brera District, and exploring the Navigli District.
- Eat at local restaurants: Local restaurants are typically more affordable than tourist restaurants. Try some of the traditional Milanese dishes, such as risotto alla Milanese and cotoletta alla Milanese.
- Shop at local markets: Local markets are a great place to find souvenirs and gifts at a good price.
