

Translated Works From Baudelaire, Verlaine, Rimbaud, Et Al., and Selected Poems

This collection of translated works from some of the most celebrated French poets of the 19th century offers a unique opportunity to experience the beauty and power of their writing in English. The poems included in this volume have been carefully selected to represent the diversity of styles and themes that characterized the French Symbolist movement, and they are presented here in new translations that capture the original spirit and language of the poets.

Baudelaire

Charles Baudelaire (1821-1867) is considered one of the most important poets of the 19th century. His work is characterized by its exploration of themes such as beauty, love, death, and the nature of evil. Baudelaire's poetry is often dark and pessimistic, but it is also infused with a sense of beauty and wonder.
